

I am outraged that the head of the FCC is trying to ramrod thru these completely anti-democratic changes to the rules regarding limitations of ownership of media. When the free market becomes more important than a free press, America is lost. This is not overstatement. Just look at what the Clear Channel was able to do to the Dixie Chicks.